AGENDA

A. Director's Report

Maureen Riley, Executive Director, updated the Airport Advisory Board regarding current events.

- Riley informed the Board that an A380 was diverted to Salt Lake City on November 17, after receiving a bomb threat. The flight originated in LAX and was on route to Paris with approximately 500 people on board. The procedure to handle a category 6 aircraft is to remotely park the plane and have passengers use air stairs to deplane. The passengers were then bussed to the International Center and interviewed by the FBI. Bomb dogs searched and cleared the plane. The passengers boarded the aircraft and departed around midnight.
- Riley announced that Mayor-Elect Biskupski will be inaugurated in January. Currently a transition team is being assembled and there will be a period of familiarization for the members of the transition team. The Department Heads will be interviewed and there will be a rehiring process. Riley will keep the Board members informed as more information is available. David Everitt stated that at this point the only contact the Mayor's office has had around transition, is to establish a physical space for offices in the City & County Building. The City has provided laptops, tech support and copiers. Everitt guessed the transition team will start diving into the positions that are appointed positions and evaluating what the process will be for either retaining or not retaining people moving forward.
- Riley announced that Randy Berg, Director of Operations, has accepted a position as Director of Aviation at Boeing Field in Seattle. Riley expressed appreciation to Berg for all the effort he put into making the Airport what it is today.

Igor Best-Devereux inquired if the air stairs used to unload passengers from a 767 plane be used interchangeably on an A380 aircraft. Riley responded that the air stairs could be used and would reach the lower level of an A380.

Riley questioned how long the transition period was when Mayor Becker was elected. Everett responded that office decisions were still being made the last week before he took office and some decisions took months to make.

B. Terminal Redevelopment Program Update

Mike Williams, Terminal Redevelopment Program (TRP) Director, presented an update on the TRP (presentation on file). Main points included were:

- QTA with ongoing work on the elevated deck barrier walls, ramp barrier walls, deck traffic coating at pour back strips, loop roadway, HVAC and ventilation ductwork, elevator installation, stairs, carwashes, vacuum system, and compressed air systems.
- RSS "A", "B" and "C" sites with ongoing MEP rough-in, restroom rough-in, taping and finishing sheetrock, painting, fencing and site lighting.
- Photos showing beneath the QTA deck including the administration build-out, first paint on the walls and frames, ceiling grid, west side stacking area, carwash equipment installation and the electrical room switch gear wire pull.
- Current and near term phasing of the East Lift Station.

Gallivan wondered what a lift station was, Williams answered that lift stations are facilities designed to move sewage from lower to higher elevation, particularly where the elevation of the source is not sufficient for gravity flow.

Mike Zuhl inquired on when the QTA would be operational, Williams stated that the target is to have it operational in early March.

J.T. Martin inquired if when making road cuts for utilities did the cut works go under the UTA rail lines, Williams responded that they did not.

C. Year-End Audit

Ryan Tesch, Director of Finance, gave a year-end financial presentation to the Board (presentation on file) which covered financial and operational highlights, budget comparisons, airline use agreement rates and charges, concession revenues, and capital projects and equipment. Tesch introduced Ross Youngberg and Trent Bateman, Eide Bailly LLP, and explained to the Board that the auditors looked at systems of internal controls and found no issues with the control structure.

Bateman explained that the annual report included information on GASB Statement #68, a standard that relates to the accounting for pensions. This standard requires a liability be put on the books for future pension liability. The Airports portion of liability is around $24 million.

Best-Devereux inquired about the operating decrease of 13% over FY2014. Tesch stated that the operating decrease was impacted by post employment benefits of approximately $8 million, which was for employees who retire and were able to receive health insurance and life insurance after retirement. The City has decided to discontinue that option for employees. The GASB Statement #68 put the future pension liability on Airport books in FY2014. The snow chemical budget decreased last year because of a mild winter. Best-Devereux wondered if it was a onetime event in terms accounting procedures; Tesch stated that is correct.

James Rogers asked how our cost per enplaned passenger rates compare to other Airports our size. Tesch stated that compared to other Airports we are very affordable. Riley stated that the affordability of Salt Lake is driven by the fact that we have no debt service, but once we get into the phase of issuing debt, that amount will increase.

Zuhl wondered what the projected CPE rate would be after issuing debt, to which Riley responded that it is in the $5 range, which is very affordable.

D. Preview of the New SLCDA Website

Bianca Shreeve, Public Relations and Media Manager, presented a preview of the Salt Lake City Airport's new website. Shreeve stated that the primary goals in developing the new website were to make it more user and passenger friendly, responsive to different devices, and to upgrade the management system. The website has the ability to search interactive terminal maps, the ability to update in real time, and will provide analytics that will provide valuable information for future website development.

Best-Devereux inquired if the parking and transportation link will show how full the parking structure is. Shreeve answered that currently the website does not have that capability. Riley stated that the challenge has been the parking structure fills so quickly that in a few minutes it can change from having availability to being full.

Best-Devereux wondered how public transportation appeared on the website. Shreeve stated that public transportation is illustrated on the interactive map and there is a public transportation section. The public transportation section gives an overview about the TRAX line and bus service.

Mike Zuhl wondered if consideration had been given to having a phone app to allow passengers the ability to have the content of the website on their phones, Shreeve replied that the first phase was to get the new website up and going. The Airport will evaluate to see if there is a need for an app. Everitt commented that the design of the website allows the customer to view the website on a phone or tablet. Riley stated the design was created to adapt to the device the customer is using.

James Rogers commented on the way the public outreach has changed with the Airport. The social media through Instagram is one of his favorites.

Riley welcomed and introduced Nancy Volmer as the Director of Public Relations & Marketing for the Airport. Volmer will be starting on December 3rd and will replace Barbara Gann who retired in July.

The next Board meeting will be held the 16 January 2016.

Igor Best-Devereux closed the meeting at 10:02 a.m.
